SEASON NOTES

THE NEXT CHAPTER

The Florida Panthers named Bill Zito the franchise's new General Manager on Sept. 2, 2020. Getting to work right away, the former Associate GM of the Columbus Blue Jackets transformed the Panthers hockey operations with new and diverse additions to the front office with an expanded focus on player development, hockey strategy and intelligence and the establishment of a first-of-its-kind Goaltending Excellence Department.

NEW BLOOD

By the second week of October, the Panthers began to reshape the present and future of the franchise through the NHL Draft, trades and Free Agency. Zito's first big move was acquiring two-time Stanley Cup Champion Patric Hornqvist from the Pittsburgh Penguins, adding a veteran leader to bolster the team and the culture. The Cats made nine selections at the NHL Draft, book-ended by first round pick and Liiga standout centerman Anton Lundell and seventh round pick and 2021 World Junior Best Goaltender Devon Levi. Just three days later, the Panthers made several savvy signings, including hard-nosed defenseman Radko Gudas, playmaking center Alex Wennberg and a rising talent in forward Carter Verhaeghe, before adding All-Star winger Anthony Duclair and claiming defenseman Gustav Forsling off waivers just before the start of the season.

STARTING HOT

Posting three consecutive wins to start the season, a franchise first, the Panthers took off running with a 6-0-2 record over their first eight games, the second-longest point streak to start a season in franchise history. The Cats stood as the NHL's only team without a regulation loss during that span. Through 20 games, the Panthers 13-4-3 record and 29 points matched the franchise record for points over the club's first 20 games of a season set in 1996-97.

ROAD WARRIORS

Owning a 6-0-1 mark over their first seven road contests, the Panthers were the final team in the NHL to lose a game in regulation on the road this season, not suffering a loss away from home until Feb. 20, their 16th game of the season. The Panthers completed their regular season road schedule with a 17-9-2 record and .643 points percentage (the highest in franchise history). Through Florida's 28 road games, they scored 94 goals, the second-most road goals in the NHL.

HOME SWEET HOME

In their final game of the regular season, the Panthers captured their 20th home win of the season with a 4-0 shutout victory over the Tampa Bay Lightning. The Cats finished the regular season with a 20-5-3 home record and strung together a season-high seven-game home winning streak from March 20 – April 20. Led by Captain Aleksander Barkov's 14 goals and 30 points scored on home ice, Florida's offensive output was matched by solid defensive effort. The Cats' 2.32 goals allowed per game on home ice ranked tied for the sixth-least in the NHL. Over the Panthers final 15 home games, the club owned a 13-2-0 record allowing just 1.80 goals per game and scoring 3.80 goals per game.

COMEBACK CATS

Owning a league-best .607 winning percentage when allowing the game's first goal, the Panthers won a league-leading 17 games after being scored on first. The Panthers overcame multi-goal deficits six times this season to win a game in any fashion, while 11 of Florida's league-leading 20 comeback victories were achieved in regulation.

BARKOV COUNTY, FLA

Completing the season with 58 points (26-32-58) in 50 games, Aleksander Barkov led the Panthers with 38 even-strength points, 18 even-strength goals and 176 shots on goal, while logging 39 takeaways and 1,046:52 TOI, the most among all FLA forwards. This season, Barkov skated in his 500th game in a Panthers uniform and climbed the ranks of the franchise record books surpassing both Stephen Weiss and Olli Jokinen, respectively for second in club history for assists and points. The only Panther in franchise history to reach 50 points in six consecutive seasons, Barkov also logged 20 goals for his sixth consecutive season, a franchise record. On April 1, the NHL named Barkov the Central Division Star of the Month. He ranked third in the NHL (minimum: 5 GP) with 1.45 points per game, compiling 16 points (5-11-16) over 11 contests, helping lead the Panthers to a 10-5-1 record in March.

HUBY DUBY DU

Florida's franchise leader in points (498) and assists (330), Jonathan Huberdeau completed the season with a team-leading 61 points (20-41-61) in 55 games. Notching his fifth career 20-goal season and fourth 60-point campaign, Huberdeau was one of only two Central Division players to reach the 60-point mark. Named the NHL's Third Star of the Week for the week ending April 25, Huberdeau amassed seven points (1-6-7) and a +6 rating over four games through the week. Over Huberdeau's final 13 games of the season, he produced 19 points (6-13-19), second only to league leading scorer Connor McDavid (EDM), while his +17 rating tied for first in the NHL with FLA teammate Anthony Duclair. Huberdeau registered two five-point performances this season (including his first career hat trick on Feb. 4 vs. NSH), becoming the first Panthers player in franchise history to have recorded five points for the club on two separate occasions.

PURE EK-CELLENCE

Prior to missing Florida's final 21 games due to a season-ending injury, Aaron Ekblad ranked tied for first among NHL defensemen in goals, led NHL defensemen in power-play goals (6) and game-winning goals (3). The 25-year-old two-time NHL All-Star recorded 11 of his 22 points on the man advantage and produced 101 shots on goal. Ekblad had logged a team-leading 878:11 total TOI before his injury.

BOB-CAT

Sergei Bobrovsky finished his second season in South Florida with a team-leading 19 wins and three wins shy of becoming the third Russian-born goaltender in NHL history to reach 300 career wins. 'Bob' owned a 10-3-2 record and .933 even-strength save percentage on home ice. The two-time Vezina Trophy winner recorded wins in six consecutive games from March 4 – March 15, marking the longest win streak in his Panthers career. On April 3, following his 500th NHL game ceremony, Bobrovsky made a season-high 44 saves to defeat his former club, the Columbus Blue Jackets.

BIG WEEGSY STYLE

MacKenzie Weegar turned in a career performance in 2020-21 reaching career-highs in points (36), assists (30), plus/minus (+29) and shots (101). The 27-year-old registered 31 even-strength points, the most among NHL defensemen at the time of Florida's season end. Weegar's total 1194:16 TOI and 83 blocked shots led the Panthers. From March 7 – March 20, Weegar produced points in seven consecutive games (1-8-9), tying Keith Yandle's franchise record for longest point streak by a Panthers defenseman. Weegar notched a career-high four-point game (1-3-4) on April 24 vs. CAR, tying the Panthers franchise record for points by a defenseman in a game. He became the seventh defenseman in franchise history to record four points in a game. Of the seven FLA defensemen to have recorded four points in a game, Weegar is the only one who posted a shorthanded point.

ST. PATRIC

One of Florida's home alternate captains in 2020-21, Patric Hornqvist started his 13th NHL season on a red-hot pace, posting two points (1-1-2) in his debut on Jan. 17 vs. CHI and becoming the first Panther in franchise history to score goals in three consecutive games to begin a season from Jan. 17-26, amassing five points (4-1-5) over that span. His streak was capped with a game-tying goal with less than three seconds left in regulation Jan. 26 at CBJ , where he also tallied the game-deciding goal in the shootout, his first career shootout goal. Hornqvist led FLA with eight power-play tallies and fired 145 shots on goal, third-most on the team, while dishing out 80 hits. The veteran sat tied for fifth on FLA with 32 points (14-18-32) over 44 games, and surpassed the 800 games played, 250-goal and 500-point milestones in 2020-21.

1KYANDLE

On March 7 at CAR, Keith Yandle skated in his 1,000th NHL game. Celebrated in a pregame ceremony on March 13 at BB&T Center, Yandle became the 352nd player to play in 1,000 NHL games. The native of Boston, Mass., also became the 116th defenseman, the 52nd U.S.-born player and the 19th U.S.-born defenseman to reach the 1,000 games played milestone. The league's active "ironman" leader, Yandle continued to climb through the record books as he claimed second all-time for consecutive regular season games played on April 24 vs. CAR, surpassing Garry Unger's 40-plus year-record of 914 consecutive games. With an assist in Florida's regular season finale vs. Tampa Bay, Yandle recorded his 600th NHL point, becoming the 10th U.S.-born defenseman in NHL history to reach the milestone.

THIS IS THE WAY

Chris Driedger produced career-highs in games played (23), wins (14) and shutouts (3). Over his first nine appearances of the season, Driedger posted a 7-1-1 record. Nominated for the 2020-21 Bill Masterton Trophy, Driedger tied for third in the NHL in save percentage (.917) among goaltenders who played at least 20 games.

THE DUKE OF SOUTH FLORIDA

Among Florida's most consistent offensive threats, Anthony Duclair produced 16 points (6-10-16) over his final 14 games, owning a +17 rating, tied with Jonathan Huberdeau for the highest in the NHL over that span. 29 of Duclair's 32 points (10-22-32) were registered at even-strength, while he produced a career-best +27 rating.

AT THE DEADLINE

Just prior to the NHL Trade Deadline, the Panthers acquired five new players: Forward Sam Bennett, Forward Nikita Gusev, Defenseman Brandon Montour, Forward Lucas Wallmark and Defenseman Lucas Carlsson. By their second games with the club, Montour (goal) and Gusev (assist) posted their first points as Panthers. In the same game (April 17 at TBL), Sam Bennett notched two assists as he made his debut with the Panthers.

BENNY AND THE CATS

One of Florida's most exciting late season additions, Sam Bennett fit in perfectly with the Panthers making his debut and producing two assists on April 17 against Tampa Bay. Through just 10 games with the Cats, Bennett amassed 15 points (6-9-15), breaking Pavel Bure's franchise record for most points by a Panthers player in their first 10 games with the club. Through his first 10 games with Florida, Bennett registered three game-winning goals, 39 shots on goal, a +12 rating and 29 hits.

KNIGHT TIME

Making his highly anticipated debut, Panthers 2019 first round draft pick Spencer Knight played in his first NHL game on April 20 against the Columbus Blue Jackets, posting 33 saves and becoming the first goaltender born in the 2000s to play an NHL game and the youngest Panthers goalie to ever earn a win (20 years 1 day), surpassing Roberto Luongo's previous record (21 years, 235 days). Knight earned wins in each of his first four games, becoming the youngest netminder in NHL history to earn wins in each of their first four appearances.

THE BUTCHER

In his first season in South Florida, Radko Gudas made his presence known. Registering a league-leading 250 hits, the most by a Panthers defenseman in franchise history, Gudas logged 11 hits in a game (another franchise record) twice.

THE WENNAISSANCE

In his first season in South Florida, Alex Wennberg produced a career-high 17 goals and recorded his highest point total (29) since the 2017-18 season. Finishing the season with a 20.0 shooting percentage, the native of Stockholm, Sweden, registered his first two career hat tricks during the 2020-21 campaign, notching his first on April 3 against his former club, the Columbus Blue Jackets. Wennberg is the seventh Panthers player in franchise history to have recorded multiple hat tricks in a single season.
